

Press Conference

MINISTERUL ADMINISTRAȚIEI
Inspectoratul General al Poliției

DIRECȚIA DE INVESTIGAȚII

home →

Press conference

DataDot Technology SRL organised last Thursday, 9-th of March 2006, at Athénée Palace Hilton Hotel conference regarding the Protocol concluded with General Inspectorate of Romanian Police. The Protocol are the preventing and deterring the motor vehicles theft and their component parts and assemblies, the and identification of the stolen and counterfeiting assets and documents.

Participants

Official representatives and institutions:

General Counsellor/Trade Commissioner, His Excellency Mr. Peter Forby - Australian Consulate-General in Bucharest, Romania.

Chief of Direction of Criminal Investigations, Police Inspector Dr. Bujor Florescu - General Inspectorate of Romanian Police.

Inspector of Direction of Criminal Investigations, Mr. Florin Serban, General Inspectorate of Romanian Police.

Mr. Phil Kibler, General Manager Coordinator for DataDot Europe.

Mr. Richard Kiss, CEO of DataDot Technology SRL, Romania.

Press and televisions:

Journals and magazines :

"Cotidianul" Journal, National Journal, "Romania Libera" Journal, "Libertatea" Paper, "Curentul" Journal, "Ziua" Journal, "Curierul National" Newspaper, "Adevarul" Journal, Four Wheels Magazine, Rompres Press Agency, Mediafax Press Agency.

Romanian televisions:

Romanian Public Television, "Prima" Television, "Antena 1" Television, "Realitatea TV" Television.

The press conference in the headlines...

Official discourses, movies and asked questions from the press conference will be posted soon.

Cotidianul.

"The cars are recovered by their DNA. Motor vehicles are detected by means of micro-discs about the size of a grain of sand; this is the latest security system for your car. DataDot Technology SRL concluded a Protocol with Romanian Police..."

ADEVĂRUL

"The cars will be protected with microdots. Car thieves will have to avoid the motor vehicles protect with DataDot system"

Print this article

Australian Identity Revolution Technology in Romania

DataDot Technology announced the conclusion of a Protocol with the General Inspectorate of Romanian Police at a press conference in Bucharest on 6 March (pictured). Under the Protocol, DataDot's technology will be used to prevent theft of motor vehicles and their component parts and assemblies, and to recover and identify stolen and counterfeit assets and documents. Ten thousand police officers will use DataDot equipment as a trial until the end of 2006. For more information, contact Dana Usvat in Bucharest on Tel (40 21) 316 75 59, Email dana.usvat@austrade.gov.au

This article is an extract from Austrade Eastern Europe and North Africa - Newsletter.